

Let Your IMAGINATION Soar
at Myers Park Traditional Creative Writing Classes, Grades 1 – 5

Playwriting & Acting (Grades 1-3): Instructor, MPT Teacher, Ms. Carrillo
January 29th – April 2nd (10-wks) Tuesdays, 7:45 – 9:00 a.m.; Tuition: $150

Young Writers' Academy will provide each student with the experience of developing an original show from conception through to performance. Focus will be placed on proper fundamentals in playwriting and the theatre experience, both technical and performance. Students will work on the story of the play with direction from our instructor, who will help them form it into a show. A performance of their original play will be held on the last day.

Journalism Club (Grades 4-5) Instructor, MPT Teacher, Ms. Trznadel
January 29th – April 2nd (10-weeks) Tuesdays, 7:45 – 9a.m., Fee: $150

In this exciting course, 4th & 5th grade Myers Park students will be transformed into reporters to write, design and bring home original newspapers that will be shared with the student body. They will learn how to write for the different sections of a paper: editorial, reviews, world news, sports reporting and more and create their stories to be published. In addition, students will learn the tricks of the trade in broadcast journalism, including lighting techniques, set design, script writing, floor directing, and more.
