Personalized to:	 "A story with massive heart... A book to make readers think, question, reach, laugh, and strive harder." -- Kirkus Reviews	The Next Great Paulie Fink (New!) When Caitlyn Breen enters the tiny Mitchell School in rural Vermont, she is a complete outsider: the seventh grade has just ten other kids, and they've known each other since kindergarten. Her classmates are in for a shock of their own: Paulie Fink--the class clown, oddball, troublemaker, and evil genius--is gone this year. As stories of Paulie's hijinks unfold, his legend builds, until they realize there's only one way to fill the Paulie-sized hole in their class. They'll find their next great Paulie Fink through a reality-show style competition, to be judged by the only objective person around: Caitlyn, who never even met Paulie Fink. Told via multiple voices, this is a lighthearted yet surprisingly touching exploration of how we build up and tear down our own myths...about others, our communities, and ourselves.	Hardcover $16.70
